Crime Analysis

A set of systematic, analytical processes directed at providing timely and pertinent information relative to crime patterns and trend correlations to assist the operational and administrative personnel in planning the deployment of resources for the prevention and suppression of criminal activities, aiding the investigative process, and increasing apprehensions and the clearance of cases. Within this context, Crime Analysis supports a number of department functions including patrol deployment, special operations, and tactical units, investigations, planning and research, crime prevention, and administrative services (budgeting and program planning). --Steven Gottlieb et al., 1994, "Crime Analysis: From First Report to Final Arrest."

Information and Intelligence received on criminal activity:

CTIC provided LEO intelligence during this month.

Intelligence meetings were held with the Middlesex County Detective Association and the Shoreline Detectives in regard to on-going criminal activity in all our jurisdictions.

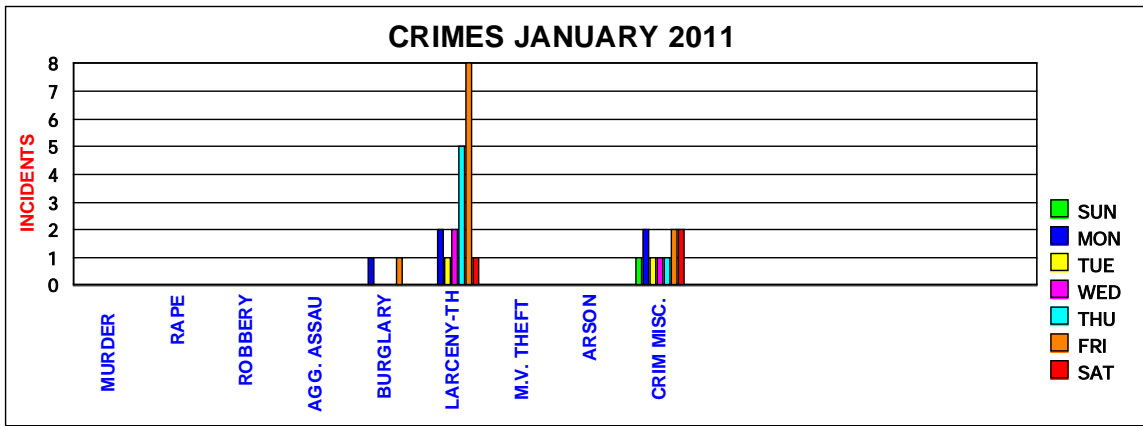

Daily intelligence and surveillance briefings took place with Branford Police in an attempt to deter and arrest the parties responsible for burglaries in both jurisdictions over the past several weeks. Based on information gathered from these meetings burglaries were solved in both jurisdictions.

Sincerely,

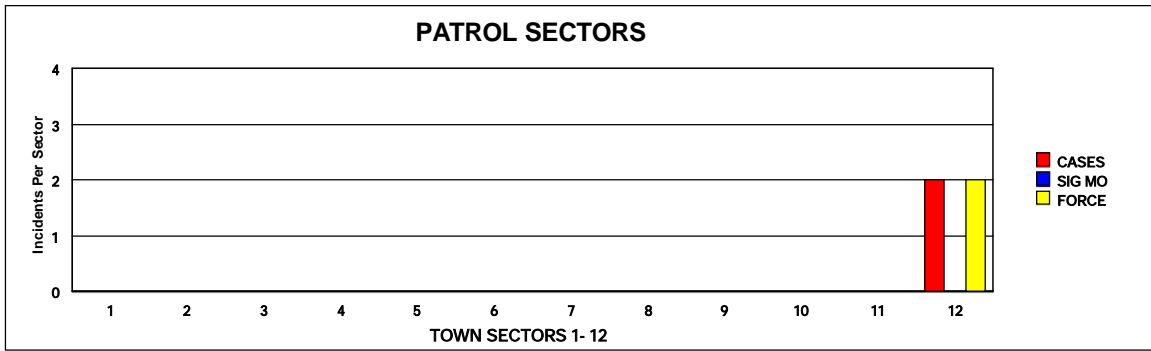

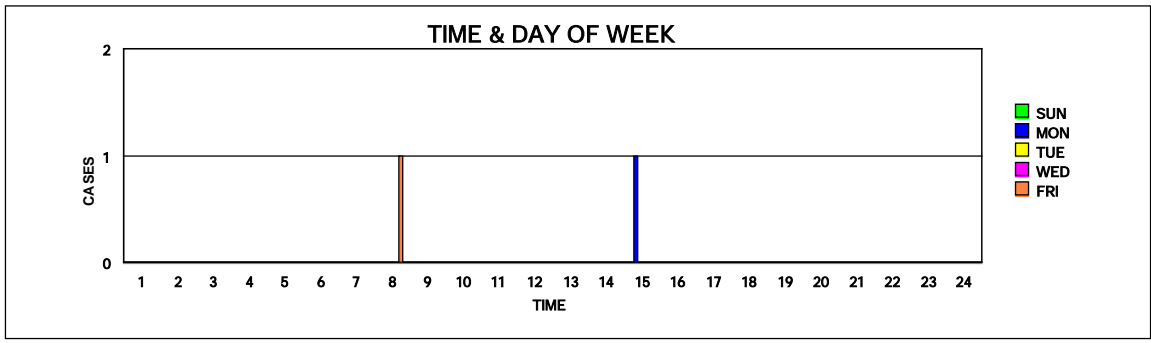

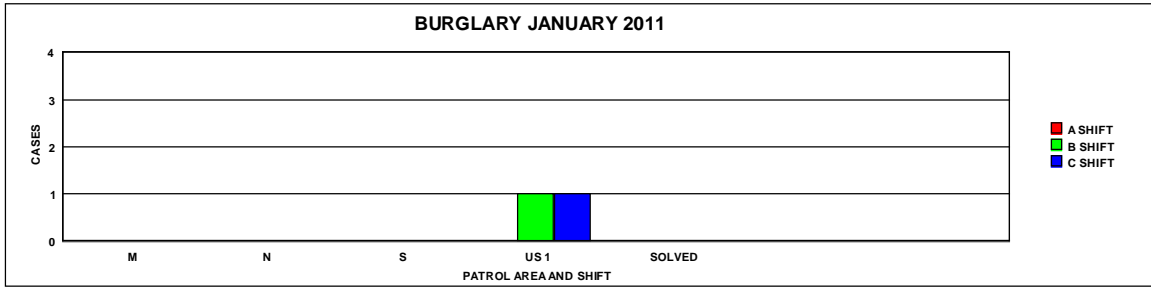

*Det. Sgt. John Dunn #64
Detective Unit Supervisor*
