Crime Analysis

A set of systematic, analytical processes directed at providing timely and pertinent information relative to crime patterns and trend correlations to assist the operational and administrative personnel in planning the deployment of resources for the prevention and suppression of criminal activities, aiding the investigative process, and increasing apprehensions and the clearance of cases. Within this context, Crime Analysis supports a number of department functions including patrol deployment, special operations, and tactical units, investigations, planning and research, crime prevention, and administrative services (budgeting and program planning). --Steven Gottlieb et al., 1994, "Crime Analysis: From First Report to Final Arrest."

SUBJECT: Crime Analysis Report July 2010

During the month of July 2010. The Guilford Police Department had the following Part 1 and selected Part 2 Crimes reported: Reference Appendix A for further information. This information was compiled via the AS400 system utilizing a query of all Part 1 Crimes and select Part 2 crimes from the computer database. A full review of each queried case file report was completed.

A user friendly interactive website is available through www.crimereports.com In addition to the information and graphs listed below. The crime reports link also catalogs and provides crime graphs and trends which allow officers and supervisors to better direct their patrols in preventing crime in the town. The crime reports site links all calls for service in the town.

The Guilford Police Department investigated 1195 cases for the month of July.

Burglary Cases

There were a total of (4) burglary cases filed, two were forced, two were commercial and two were residential. None were solved. One is under active investigation with several suspects and leads at this time. None of the cases had a distinct pattern or modes operandi. Reference Appendix B for a graphic representation

There were a total of (16) criminal mischief cases filed; four were mailbox damage, eight were private property, and four were public property. None were solved. No suspect information was developed. None of the cases had a distinct pattern or modes operandi. Reference Appendix C for a graphic representation

Larceny Cases:

There were a total of (26) larceny complaints filed. A detailed examination of these cases revealed the following details: Of the twenty-nine cases, (4) were solved. A total breakdown of the types of larceny cases are as follows: (5) theft from building, (6) theft from a motor vehicle, (11) general larceny cases, (1) cases involving stolen bicycle, (3) shopliftings. Four cases were solved, two via arrests. The two solved cases did display a distinct pattern and modus operandi Reference Appendix D for a graphic representation

Robbery Cases:

A Bank Robbery occurred during this reporting period. No weapon was displayed. The suspect was arrested and linked to an earlier bank robbery in Wethersfield, CT.

Arson Cases:

None Reported

Rape Cases:

In accordance with Connecticut General Statutes details of all sexual assault cases details remain sealed.

Murder Cases:

None reported

Information and Intelligence received on criminal activity:

Detectives attended intelligence briefings regarding scam burglars that target elderly residential homes, while the victims are home. One suspect will approach the victim and coaxed them outside to talk about their yard work or repairs to their property. While the second suspect will enter the home and burglarize it. Agencies compared notes and case files on these cases. Guilford had one case during this reporting period which is being actively investigated.

Based on information received from the bank robbery arrest Wethersfield Police Department was able to receive an arrest warrant for the bank robbery in their jurisdiction that occurred in July.

CTIC provided LEO intelligence during this month.

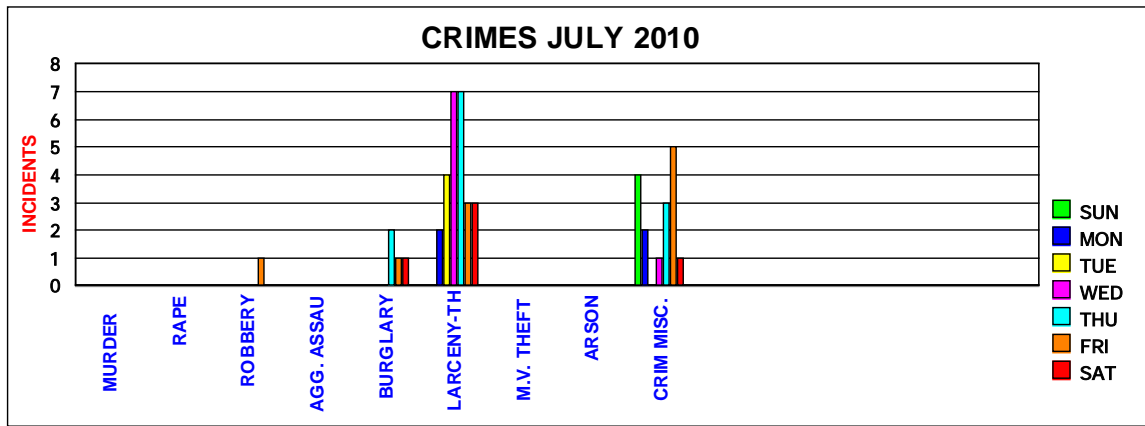

Intelligence meetings were held with the Middlesex County Detective Association and the Shoreline Detectives in regard to on-going criminal activity in all our jurisdictions.

Sincerely,

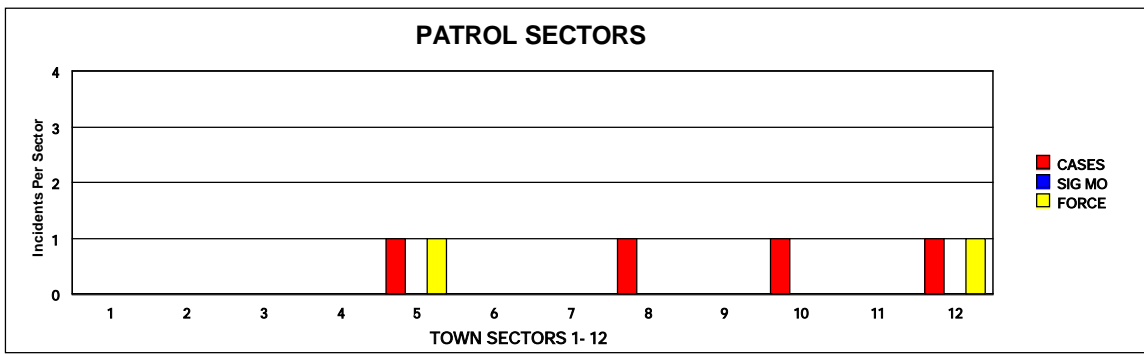

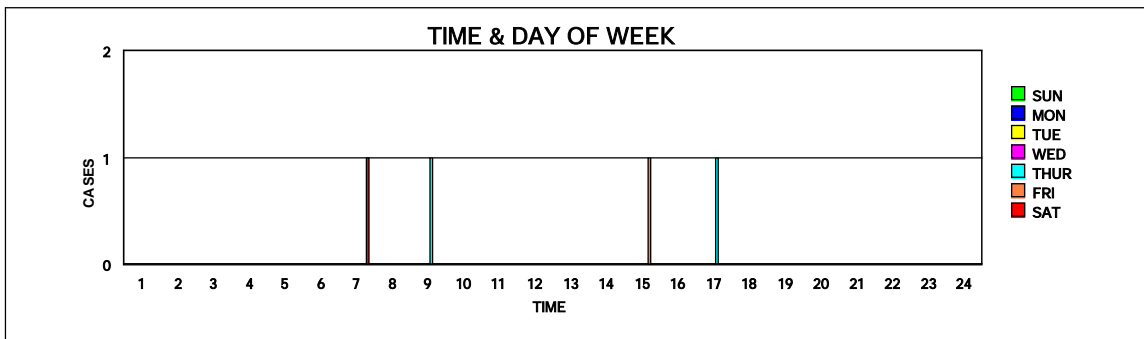

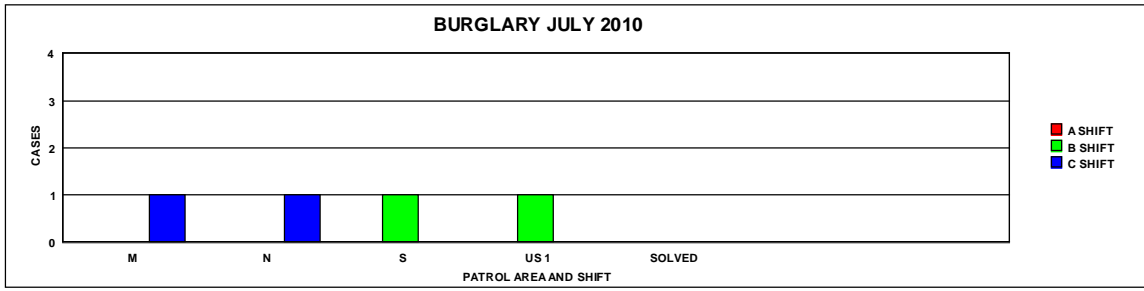

*Det. Sgt. John Dunn #64
Detective Unit Supervisor*
