Press Release

Reference Guilford Police case 18-8766.

On 3/3/2018 at 1420hrs the Guilford Police Department responded with the Guilford Fire Department to the Guilford Yacht Club, 379 Whitfield St., for the report of an overturned barge, resulting in person(s) in the water. Rescue divers from the Guilford Fire Department conducted a search of the area after it was determined that one male aboard the barge when it overturned was missing. The divers later located a 32 year old male in the water who was determined to be deceased at the scene. The male was transported to the Office of the Chief Medical Examiner to determine cause and manner of death.

This investigation is ongoing and is being conducted by the United States Coast Guard (New Haven office) and OSHA.
